That petitioner served the legal notice to respondent on 07-02-2011 for arrears, whereupon respondent replied on 22-02-2011 but not paid the amount. That number of other employees who have been retired were not given 10 months salary approached the authority under payment of Wages Act and order has been passed in their favour for payment of 10 months leave salary. Lastly prayed for allowing the petitioner along with 18% interest.

Notice to respondent was served. Respondent appeared and filed the objection while controverting the claim of petitioner. Respondent in the objection submitted that JKPCCL being a body Corporation Ltd. is governed by its own rules and regulation and is run by its employees permanent as well as temporary has adopted its own rules known as "The JKPCCL Service Regulation". #### AWARD

Petitioner filed the instant petition while raising Industrial Dispute under section 33 (C), sub-section (2) of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 hereinafter to be referred as the Act.

It is stated by the petitioner workman that he was appointed on 09-08-1967 and served in the department of respondent JKPCC and has retired from the service on superannuation on 30-04-2006. That the non-applicants have paid the cash in lieu of leave salary for 4 months in the year 2006, whereas the applicant is entitled for 10 months leave salary encashment on the basis of last pay and now balance is due Rs. 1,86,800/- as well as the arrears of salary which is Rs. 39,556/- for the period of 01-01-2006 to 30-04-2006. That petitioner served the legal notice to respondent on 07-02-2011 for the payment of leave encashment of Rs. 1,86,800/- being less paid for six months arrears of salary is Rs. 39,556/- for the period of 01-01-2006 to 03-04-2006. That the petitioner is entitled to 10 months leave salary as per SRO-124 dated 17-04-1998 issued by Finance Department of J&K Government. That J&K Employees (Conduct) Rule, 1971 has been extended to all employees of Govt. irrespective whether they belong to Govt. Department or Corporation by virtue of SRO-47 dated 05-02-1971.

Notice to respondent was served. Respondent appeared and filed the objection while controverting the claim of petitioner. Respondent in the objection submitted that JKPCC being a body Corporation Ltd. is governed by its own rules and regulation and is run by its employees permanent as well as temporary has adopted its own rules known as "The JKPCC Service Regulation". That Finance Department, J&K Govt. issued SRO-124 dated 17-04-1998 whereunder only State Govt. employees are entitled for 300 days as cash in lieu of Leave Salary and not the corporation employees. The JKPCC has its own leave rules whereunder only 120 days leave salary is being paid as cash in lieu of leave salary at the time of retirement and admittedly the petitioner has received 120 days cash in lieu of leave salary. Respondent in the objection further submitted that now the rules are amended

No. 40-3] The J&K Govt. Gazette, 7th Jan., 2020/17th Pausa, 1941. 3 in 81st Board Meeting and has enhanced the leave encashment to 300 days and the same shall take place from 01-04-2008 however the cases settled after before 01-04-2008 to the dated of issuance of this order dated 10-07-2008 shall not be reopened. The petitioner has retired before 01-04-2008 as such is entitled to only 120 days Leave Salary. Finally prayed for dismissal of the petition.

From the perusal of record it is established that respondent has not disputed that petitioner was an employee of JKPCC. It has also been admitted by respondent that JK Service (Leave) Rules have been made applicable to employees of JKPCC with effect from 01-04-2008 dated 10-07-2008 and prior to 01-04-2008 the employees of JKPCC were entitled to only 120 days leave encashment. In view of clear admission by respondent there is no scope for further enquiry. As such file came up for arguments. I have heard the arguments.

I have heard the arguments and gone through record carefully.

From the perusal of record it appears that JKPCC has adopted the JK Civil Service Rules, 1979, Civil Service Rules, 1979, Civil Service (Medical Attendance and Allowance) Rules, 1990 and T. E. Rules vide order No. 82 dated 10-07-2008. It is imperative to reproduce the order No. 82/2008 passed by the respondent JKPCC, which reads as under :

Subject : Implementation of Jammu and Kashmir Civil Services (Medical Attendance and Allowance) Rules, 1990 and T. A. Rules.

12. In view of the proceeding analysis, the impugned order passed by the Learned Single Judge cannot be sustained in the eye of law.
However, in view of submissions made by Learned Senior Counsel for the appellant that the respondent is entitled to interest on delayed payment of leave encashment for a period of 120 days, we direct the appellant therein to compute the interest on delayed payment of leave encashment for a period of 120 days and to pay the same to the respondent w. e. f. the date when it became due to him till the actual payment is made.

In view of above discussion and the law cited this Tribunal is of the opinion that petitioner is not entitled for 300 days cash in lieu of leave salary and is only entitled to 120 days leave salary. Which he has already received with interest.

Accordingly, the respondent is directed to pay the amount of difference as per 6th Pay Commission along with interest on delayed payment at the rate of 10% and pay the same to petitioner. Petition disposed off. File shall

Notification

SRO-454.ô In exercise of the powers conferred by section 18 of the Jammu and Kashmir Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 2018 (Governor Act No. VIII of 2018), the Government hereby makes the following rules, namely :ô

1. Short title and commencement. (1) These rules may be called the Jammu and Kashmir Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Rules, 2019.

(2) They shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

(2) Definitions. In These rules, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "Act" means the Jammu and Kashmir Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 2018 ; and

(b) "section" means a section of the Act.

Words and expressions used but not defined in these rules shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the Act.

3. Scrutiny of Misleading Advertisements Relating to Drugs.

Any person, authorized by the Government in this behalf may, if satisfied, that an advertisement relating to drug contravenes the provisions of section 4 by order, require the manufacturer, packer, distributor or seller of the drug to furnish, within such time as may be specified in the order or such further time as may be allowed in this behalf by the person so authorized information regarding the composition of the drug or the ingredients thereof or any other information in regard to that drug as he deems necessary for holding the scrutiny of the advertisement and where any such order is made, it shall be the duty of the manufacturer, packer, distributor or seller of the drug to which the advertisement related to comply with the order. Any failure to comply with such order shall, for the purposes of section 7, be deemed to be a contravention of the provisions of section 4 :

Provided that no publisher or advertising agency of any medium for the dissemination of any advertisement relating to a drug shall be deemed to have made any such contravention merely by reason of the dissemination by him or if any such advertisement, unless such publisher or advertising agency has failed to comply with any direction made by the authorized person in this behalf calling upon him or it to furnish the name and address of the manufacturer, packer, distributor, seller or advertising agency, as the case may be, who or which caused such advertisement to be disseminated.

4. Procedure to be followed in prohibiting import and export from state of certain advertisement. (1) If the Excise Commissioner, has reasons to believe that any consignment contains documents of the nature referred to in section 6, he may and if requested by an officer appointed for the purpose by the Government, shall detain the consignment and dispose it of in accordance with the provisions of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substance Act, 1985 and shall also inform the importer or exporter of the order so passed :

Provided that if the importer or exporter feels aggrieved by an order passed by the Excise Commissioner, under this sub-rule and makes a representation to him within one week of the date of receipt of order and has given an undertaking in writing not to dispose of the consignment without the consent of the Excise Commissioner, and to return the consignment when so required to do by the Excise Commissioner, the Excise Commissioner, shall pass an order making over the consignment to the importer or exporter, as the case may be :

Provided further that before passing any order under this sub-rule or under the first proviso thereto, the Excise Commissioner shall consult the officer appointed for the purpose by Government.

(2) If the importer or exporter who has given an undertaking under the first proviso to sub rule (1) is required by the Excise Commissioner, to return the consignment or any portion thereof he shall return the consignment or portion thereof within ten days of the receipt of the notice.

5. Manner in which advertisements may be sent confidentially. All documents containing advertisements relating to drugs referred to in clause (C) of section 16, shall be sent by post to a registered medical practitioner by name or to a wholesale or retail chemist, the address of such registered medical practitioner or wholesale or retail chemist being given. Such document shall bear at the top, printed in indelible ink in a conspicuous manner, the words, "For the use only of registered medical practitioners or a hospital or a laboratory".

6. Prohibition of advertisement of drugs for treatment of disease, etc. Subject to the provisions of these rules, no person, shall also take part in the publication of any advertisement referring to any drug in terms which suggest or are calculated to lead to the use of that drug for the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of any

Whereas, during investigation accused Asif Iqbal disclosed that he was given a Pistol (weapon of offence) by one Junaid Ashraf Khan S/o Mohammad Ashraf Khan R/o Jahangir Colony, Baghat, who has been an active terrorist of Hizbul-Mujahidin outfit and after commission of the terror act, the Pistol was returned to him. On the disclosure of accused Asif Iqbal ammunition AK-15 Rounds, Ammunition Pistol 02 Rounds, one Hand Grenade and one black flag was also recovered from Mehjoor Nagar. The accused persons confessed that Junaid Ashraf Khan had assigned that task to them, and during the process they used a Motorcycle, taken away by them from one unknown person. However, FSL examination of the tip (Panda) which was recovered from the thigh of the injured could not be done due to non recovery of the Pistol (Weapon of offence) because accused possessing the weapon is an active absconding terrorist against whom a separate Case FIR No. 42/2018 under sections 13, 18, 20 Unlawful Activities (P) Act stands registered which is under investigation ; and

Through :ô Counsel

In the matter : Joint application under section 16 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 for

AWARD

This is to dispose a joint petition filed by two applicants through their counsel under section 16 of Payment of Wages Act, 1936 for recovery of their unpaid and withheld wages since January, 2008 till date. The brief facts as collected from the record placed on the file is that the above-mentioned two applicants stands engaged as daily wagers vide No. AB/1188-90 dated 12-10-1987 by the Block Development Officer, Achabal, District Anantnag and are continuing to work as such till date without being regularised their services despite putting in more than 30 years of service in the respondent's department. The applicants therefore have preferred the claim petition under section 15(2) of the P. W. Act, 1936 read with Section 33 (c)(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 along with the statement of the unpaid wages for its recovery. The case after registration was put on 03-8-2017 for filing of objections from the respondents. The respondent filed their response and statement of objections through their counsel against the claim petition on 14-12-2017 and in their objections they have maintained that a notice as required under section 80 C. P. C. was required to be given to the respondents before filing of their claim petition as the respondents are the state. Further, Ld. Counsel have stated that the engagement/appointment of the applicants are wrong because the respondent No. 3 i. e. B. D. O., Achabal has no authority to issue such orders and the applicant No. 2 was a minor at the time of her engagement. Therefore, have prayed for the dismissal of the claim application of the applicants. Against this the applicants through their counsel filed rejoinder in which the learned counsel have stated notices to the respondents had been sent twice through ROMANA YOUSUF, Advocate dated 6-4-2015 and 11-05-2017 but despite lapse of two years from the date of issuance of the notices to the respondents they didn't care to take considerable steps towards releasing and payment of the unpaid wages to the applicants and after waiting from January, 2008 till May, 2017 the applicants were constrained to approach the appropriate court for redressal of their grievances and release and recovery of their legitimate dues. In light of these submissions the learned counsel of the applicants prayed for the rejection of the objections of the respondents. The case was put on filing and framing of the issues which were framed by the Court on 04-06-2018 and the applicants were directed to produce their witnesses in support of their claim petition. In all 4 (four) witnesses were examined including the applicants, in the shape of affidavit. All the witnesses have deposed that they are still working as daily wagers in the respondents departments since last more than 30 years but their services have not been regularised though some of their colleagues have since been regularised barring the applicants. The applicants in support of their contention have referred and office of the Block Development Officer, Achabal addressed to the Assistant Commissioner, Development, Anantnag vide No. B. D. O/A/Estt/2017-18/6349 dated 16-03-2018 wherein the list of the daily wagers with his recommendation for regularization of their services have been placed on file and have become part of the file. The applicants do figure in the enclosed list at S. No. 4 and 5. among others. Similarly another communication letter issued by the Asstt. Commissioner, Development, Anantnag addressed to Director, Rural Development Department, Kashmir vide No. ACD/A/legal/2017-18/22536-37 dated 24-03-2018 whereby the list of the 9 (nine) daily wagers as forwarded by the concerned B. D. O. to the ACD has been addressed and forwarded to the Director, Rural Development, Kashmir for the consideration wherein both the applicants stands enlisted at Sl. No. 4 and 5 respectively. The other two witnesses Mohammad Salim Dar and Bashir Ahmad Ganaie also deposed the same things and they also figure in the enclosed list of the daily wagers at S. No. 7 and 2 but are still not regularised. The applicants did not produced further evidences, therefore the respondents were directed to produce their witnesses and the documents, if any, but they didn't with the result the opportunity of filing their evidence was closed and the file was posted for arguments.

The learned counsel of the applicants argued with respect to the engagement of the applicants by the respondents department as long back in the year 1987 and since then they are continuing to till date but their services have not been regularised and their wages from January, 2008 stands withheld and not paid. However, the applicants have been paid their wages from the date of their engagement till December, 2007 but afterwards the wages of the applicants have not been paid and are thus unpaid for no reason. The learned counsel of the applicants further stated that the plea of the respondents with respect to the applicant No. 2 at this moment is obsolete and childish. As she has been paid the wages from the date of her engagement till December, 2007 i. e. for 20 years and now they are claiming that she was minor at her time of engagement. Therefore, their plea with respect to this point have no validity in the eyes of law as no one till date has raised this plea and without any proof or document on the subject this plea cannot be considered. Therefore, this plea of respondent does not sustain. Further the other plea with respect to the issuance of the engagement order by the respondent No. 3. is useless as its appointment or engagement order is not for a vacant post but is the engagement as daily wager and has never been objected at any quarter by any authority. Most important is that the applicants have been properly paid their due wages for a period of 20 (twenty) years but for unknown reasons the wages from January, 2008 have been withheld. Further the names of the applicants along with other incumbents have been forwarded to the higher authorities for regularization of services per above referred letter by Block Development Officer and Assistant Commissioner, Development.

The examination and the scrutiny of the file reveals that the applicants stands appointed and engaged as daily wagers in the year 1987 and are continuing as such till date which fact is evidenced by the submission of the two communication letters issued from the respondents department and forwarded to the Respondent No. 1 for regularisation of their services. So it is undisputed fact that they are still on the service roll/record of the respondents and are working there as daily wagers but are not being paid their legitimate dues since more than one decade which is very sheer injustice with the applicants. The court feels strange as how the applicants are managing their lives without being paid their dues and wages. In fact the court observes that the act of the respondents withholding the wages of the applicants are cruel and intolerant. The Court therefore held each applicant entitled to their unpaid wages to the tune of Rs. 4,67,400 (Rupees four lacs sixty seven thousand and four hundred) from January, 2008 till December, 2007. Further the Government has issued a SRO-520 dated 01-01-2018 under which the daily wager who have put in more than 20 years of service as daily wagers are entitled to Rupees 20,000/- per month as their wages accordingly to it each applicant is further entitled to 3,60,000/- as wages from the month of January, 2018 till June, 2019. Further, the Court feels that undue delay has been caused is not making the payment of the due wages of the applicants lays compensation of Rs. 3000/- for each year of delay in terms of section 15(2) of Payment of Wages Act, 1936 in favour of the applicants and against the respondents.

Therefore, each applicant is held entitled to Rs. 8,57,400/- as withheld wages in totality both the applicants are entitled to 17,14,800/- as their back wages.

The award is accordingly passed in favour of the applicants and against the respondents who are directed to deposit the amount of Rs. 17,14,800/- (Rupees Seventeen Lacs fourteen thousand and eight hundred) in this Court within a month failing which the same shall be recovered as per Law. The file after due completion be consigned to records under rules.

A copy of this award be sent to the Government of Jammu and Kashmir through its Commissioner/Secretary, Labour Department for information and publication in the Government Gazette.
